Refrigerators at J. T. Hinton's.

JUDGE WEBB'S civil court begins this morning at ten o'clock at the city hall.

THE will of Fannie Harris, colored, was probated yesterday in County Court.

MRS. DUKE BOWLES, relict of Socrates Bowles, has rented the residence of Rev. F. J. Cheek, on South Main Street.

HUGH CLENDENIN has been engaged as organist at the Baptist Church during the absence of Miss Mattie Lileston.

CONSTABLE JOE WILLIAMS yesterday arrested Wm. Shannon, a negro man charged with beating a woman at Cane Ridge. Shannon was put in jail.

If you are thinking of buying a ladies wheel, it will pay you to look at the ones we are turning out for $50.

G. S. VARDEN &amp; CO.

P. I. MCCARTHY and family moved yesterday into the Pleasant street residence recently purchased from Mrs. Mary Adair, who has moved to Covington.

THE Central University cadets, who came to Paris several years ago on an outing, have selected Shelbyville as the place of their annual outing this year. May 8 is the date.

THE Dispatch, Louisville's new daily paper, is winning merited praise from competent judges. It is a newsy and well edited paper and is winning popularity throughout Kentucky.

MRS. DAVID COOK united with the Baptist Church, Sunday, by letter. Miss Wessellman, who recently united with the same congregation, was baptized Wednesday night.

In Judge Webb's court yesterday Ed. Murray was fined $12.50 for breach of the peace, and his sisters Maggie and Clarissa, were tried on the charge of vagrancy, and were ordered to leave the city.

THE Green Frog is the newest candidate for favor of the reading public in Paris. It is a bright little sheet edited and printed by George Noel Parris, of the Reporter office. The Green Frog will appear every Saturday.

AN oratorical contest between colored representatives from several cities in the Seventh Congressional District, will be held Friday night in the court house in the court house in this city. The admission will be ten, fifteen and twenty-five cents.

THE partnership existing between Drs. Roberts and Ussery has been dissolved by mutual consent. Dr. Roberts will continue the business at his offices on Pleasant street. Dr. Ussery will leave in a few days to accept a position in St. Louis. He has made many friends during his residence in Paris.

HON. CLAUDE M. THOMAS and wife arrived last night from Versailles, and are now at the home of Mr. Thomas' father, Mr. E. K. Thomas, near North Middletown. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas both are looking well and their friends will give them a hearty welcome. They are glad to be back in old Kentucky again.

Court Day Report.

THERE was a crowd of moderate size in Paris yesterday to attend court, but politics ruled the day. There were about 100 cattle on the market, but the demand was slow. Myers &amp; Allen, of Lincoln, sold thirty 1,100-lb. cattle to John T. Ireland, for $4.75 per cwt. Joe Lair sold thirty 1,100-lb. cattle to Norman Hambrick, at private figures.

Arrested in Paris.

SUNDAY Chief of Police Chas. Wilson and Dick Bishop came to this city from Mt. Sterling in search of two white tramps suspected of burglarizing a C. &amp; O. car at Farmer, Ky. The men were captured near the gas house in East Paris Sunday night, and some of the stolen property was found in their possession. The prisoners were taken to Mt. Sterling yesterday morning.

H. Margolen Ass'gn.

H. MARGOLEN, the well-known furniture dealer, of this city, assigned yesterday to Louie Saloshin, also of this city; Harmon Stitt, attorney.

Liabilities, between eight and nine thousand dollars. Assets, a stock of furniture, stoves, etc.

The assignment was caused by dull trade. It is believed that an arrangement will be effected with the creditors, whereby the business may be continued.

Mr. Margolen has many friends who will regret to learn of his embarrassment.

Eld. Zack Sweeney's Opinion.

ELD. Z. T. SWEENEY, who was Consul General to Constantinople, during the Harrison administration, talked as follows Thursday to a Cincinnati reporter regarding the war in Greece:

"The Turks will win in the fight with Greece. They are terrific fighters and are fatalists. They charge the enemy like demons, feeling that if their time has come, they will die, if not, they will live. The Turkish army is a fine body of highly drilled men."

"The Sultan is guarded by his physician when asleep. The doctor, strange as it may seem, is a Greek Christian, as is also the Sultan's private secretary."

"A number of his other high officials are Greeks. There are extremely few converts to Christianity among the Turks. When one does profess Christ he suddenly mysteriously disappears, and is probably killed by the faithful followers of Mohammed."

Master Commissioner Sales.

The following sales were made yesterday by Master Commissioner E. M. Dickson:

A house and lot in Little Rock, property of Bourbon Peace Lodge, No. 100, U. B. F., sold to D. P. Good, for $300.

C. R. Redmon's interest in dower tract (125 acres) of Mrs. Elizabeth T. Redmon, sold to W. M. Layson, for $300. Lot in Buddles Mills belonging to S. A. Martin, etc., was purchased for $550 by W. T. Buckler.

Twenty acres of land on Silas dirt road, for Ann D. Lucas, executrix, sold to A. Shire, at $27 per acre.

The house and lot on Broadway, owned by Mrs. Mary I. Tucker, was sold yesterday to Bruce Miller.

To Meet at Covington.

THE Kentucky Homoeopathic Medical Society will hold its twelfth annual meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall in Covington, May 26 and 27. Dr. C. P. Meredith, of Louisville, will deliver the annual address. The following have been assigned Chairmen of various bureaus: Materia Medica, Dr. J. H. Smyser, Cynthia; Surgery, Dr. E. B. Johns, Lexington; Clinical Medicine, Dr. J. C. Foster, Harrodsburg; Obstetrics, Dr. H. C. Kasselman, Midway; Nose and Throat, Dr. E. B. Garber, Frankfort; Gynaecology, Dr. J. T. Vausant, Paris; Paedology, Dr. F. W. Fischback, Newport; Ophthalmology, Dr. R. G. Reed, Louisville. The Society will be invited to meet in this city next year.

The Bowles Sale.

THE executor's sale of the personal property of Socrates Bowles was attended by a fair crowd Saturday, despite the rain. Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth reports the sale of two 2-year-old steers at $14.00; one Jersey heifer at $31.25; cow, $45; calf, $11; 95 common ewes and lambs, $8.06 each; horse, $26; corn $1.40 to $1.45. Farm implements brought good prices.

Another Turnpike Freed.

THE Bourbon Fiscal Court yesterday concluded arrangements whereby the toll-gates on the Paris &amp; Townsend pike will be removed. There are about seven miles of this road.

Only Col. Baldwin's pike (about 16 miles) and the Riddles Mills &amp; Shawhan (1½ miles) remain—with five gates. There are now a total of 260 miles of free pikes in Bourbon.

An Ex-Bourbon Assigns.

W. L. WRIGHT, who lives in Scott county, near the Bourbon line, has assigned to Rucker &amp; Briscoe, of Georgetown. His assets consist of about 200 acres of land. He is a son of J. Wilson Wright, of near this city.

Do wise people go to blacksmiths for watches or to butchers for legal advice? We sell bicycles, see?

WHEEL NOTES.

Lines About Devotees Of The Wheel, At Home And Elsewhere.

The Mayor of Chicago is an enthusiastic cyclist.

Will F. Hays, formerly of Millersburg, has joined the Kenton Club, at Covington.

Mrs. Rachel Fitzy, aged eighty-three, of Circleville, Ohio, learned to ride a bicycle last week.

The Fountain-st. Baptist Church, in Chicago, has a bicycle stable to accommodate 150 wheels.

The young girls of Georgetown have a fresh attack of bicycle fever, and many have bought wheels.

Kenton Wheel Club note in Enquirer: "The boys have several invitations this year to visit Flemingsburg, Maysville, Millersburg and Paris."

A FEW second hand wheels, almost new, at Varden's, cheap.

SEND your shirts to the Bourbon Steam Laundry and have them starched on the latest improved starch—just put in this week. (tf)

Dr. Bell's Pine Tarr Honey acts as a balm to the lungs, cutting the mucus, allaying the inflammation, healing and strengthening. It is sure to do you good—cannot do you harm. Thousands have been benefited by its use.

An employee of the L. &amp; N. sued the company at Frankfort for $15,000 damages sustained by sticking a splinter in his finger, and got a verdict for $2,500. The jury goes for corporations whenever they get a chance.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

—OF—

VALUABLE SCHOOL PROPERTY, LOTS, ETC.

By virtue of a judgment of sale rendered by the Bourbon Circuit Court, in the action of Mary W. Berry's assignee, plaintiff, vs. Mary W. Berry, etc., defendants, the undersigned will, on Thursday, May 13th, 1897, on the premises, beginning at 1 o'clock, p. m., expose to public sale the property known as "Paris Classical Institute," consisting of 3.87 acres of land fronting on Sycamore St., in Paris, Ky., and bounded by Short St. on one side and the home-place of J. D. Butler on the other. This is an excellent opportunity to continue a well established school in Paris. The property will be offered as a whole first, and then in 16 subdivisions, 15 of which make fine building lots, and the 16th will consist of a parcel of land 180 ft. in length and 175 ft. in width, and having thereon the college property, a large stable and other buildings. If No. 16 is not purchased for school purposes, it can be converted into 3 or 4 adjoining dwellings and rented to great advantage. Also at the same time and place the undersigned will expose to public sale

Large quantity household, kitchen and school furniture, including bedroom sets, carpets, matting, tables, chairs, desks, etc.

TERMS: The real-estate will be sold upon credits of 6 and 12 months, and the personal property upon credits of 4 months; all purchasers to execute bond with good surety to be approved by the undersigned, bearing 6 per cent. interest from date, or the purchaser may pay cash.

ROBT. C. TALBOTT,

Assignee of Mary W. Berry.
